South Carolina Lawyers Weekly* Named Pennington Law Firm's Cell Phone Tower Case as one of the 50 Most Important Opinions in 2008

January 16, 2009

Columbia, S.C. – Pennington Law Firm, L.L.P. was recently named in South Carolina Lawyers Weekly as successfully litigating one of the state's 50 Most Important Opinions for the second year in a row. In 2008, Pennington's Jessica Clancy Crowson and Gary C. Pennington victoriously represented SCE&G and SCANA Communications, Inc. in defending the rezoning of a 7-acre tract owned by SCANA on Edisto Island. The rezoning allowed SCE&G to construct a cell phone tower. ATC South, Inc., a competitor tower owner challenged the rezoning. After oral argument, the South Carolina Supreme Court in the published opinion of ATC South, Inc. v. Charleston County et. al., denied ATC standing, holding that a mere business competitor lacks the standing to challenge such a zoning decision.

Located at 1501 Main Street in Columbia, South Carolina, Pennington Law Firm, L.L.P. practices primarily in the area of wireless communications law, handling such work from initial negotiation, to trial, through appeal. Its primary focus is the representation of wireless communications companies. The firm's attorneys are licensed in the states of Georgia, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina, Texas, and Washington. Working through local counsel, the firm also presently assists with wireless infrastructure deployment in the states of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and West Virginia.
